SEPTEMBER - OCTOBER 2017

Greetings, 545 members and ladies.

This summer has been one heck of a ride for our lodge! Our lodge has been broken into and someone stole a visiting member's truck & camper from our parking lot. But thanks to Sue, Lonnie and Tommy, the guy didn't get too far and the owner was re-united with his camper in a couple of hours.

We hosted the district picnic and thanks to you, our members, and Pacifica and Monterey lodges, it was a huge success.

Santa Cruz Lodge 545, also had the honor of hosting a Robing Ceremony for our only living Pilgrim, our administrator Perry James! If you missed the ceremony, you missed something better than the eclipse in my mind. Pilgrim Perry received several Proclamations, including from the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors, and also Scotts Valley's Mayor who was in attendance. We can all be proud of what Perry has achieved. Of course he probably wouldn't have made it without Cindy's help. (Thanks Cindy).

Thanks to all the volunteers who helped with the picnic, and ceremony, and thank you to all the volunteers who donate so much time and energy for meals, and social quarter activities.

YOU,,, are the reason that our lodge is what it is.

Thank You so very much. I am proud to be a member of your Lodge,
Eugene Bustichi,
545 Governor

God Bless America and All Her Soldiers. Past And Present 🇺🇸

Hi!

I would like to thank all the great cooks and volunteers for all the help at Perry's Pilgrim ceremony. The lodge set an all time high for food and service. The social quarters drink special is Don Q rum at $3.50 with a 3 drink limit for September and October. Don Q rum is one of the best available. We need cooks and volunteers. Please remember to call or better yet come to the lodge and sign in by WEDNESDAY NIGHT for Friday night dinners. When the Dago Cook Crew is cooking we will cook up to 10 extra dinners on a first come bases only after the list.

We are having a hard time finding people to volunteer to cook. . .

But remember to make your reservations by Wednesday night so our kitchen manager can order the food. If you not on the list it's first come, first served AFTER the people on the list gets served.

Thanks again, Tom Ghio, 545 Prelate
